Initial position / background / local context of the proposed project (max 500 characters)

Nowdays when young people have limited possibilities to spend their leisure time at rural areas, it is important to offer something interesting and active to ensure meaningfully spend leisure time. Youth is one of the major risk groups exposed to different effects of addiction, unemployment, depression etc., therefore it is very important to interest them on topical and interesting things. Meaningful leisure time spending gives significant affects to the development of youth and life in general – if youth will spend their leisure time being active they will be active as an adults too. Transnational cooperation is a good possibility to motivate young people to be active. Transnational cooperation gives a chance to meet other people with common interests, to share ideas and experience.
